SAN DIEGO STADIUM COALITION TO HOST LIVE ONLINE CHAT WITH MARK FABIANI

Special Counsel to Address Stadium Issues and Answer Questions Live

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (May 13, 2009) - The San Diego Stadium Coalition, a grass-roots organization whose members are committed to ensure the construction of a world class stadium in San Diego County, is hosting an online chat with Mark Fabiani, Special Counsel to the President of the San Diego Chargers, Friday 11AM, May 15th 2009. Mr. Fabiani will respond directly to participants about the Chargers' plans for building a new stadium.

Mr. Fabiani's primary function with the Chargers is working with the greater San Diego community to explore opportunities for a new state-of-art football stadium in the San Diego region.

The online chat is available to registered members of the San Diego Stadium Coalition. For additional information or to register, visit <http://www.sdstadium.org>

"There's a lot of the uncertainty surrounding the Chargers future in San Diego." says Jason Riggs, San Diego Stadium Coalition Chairman. "This chat presents an excellent opportunity for concerned citizens to get their most challenging questions answered." Mr. Fabiani will directly answer as many questions as possible during this hour-long chat.

About The San Diego Stadium Coalition

The San Diego Stadium Coalition is an organization whose members are wholly committed to working with municipal entities to ensure the construction of a world-class stadium within San Diego County, which will serve as a home for the San Diego Chargers, SDSU Aztecs, BCS Bowl Games, and other events. Our commitment is fueled by a passion for local sports, an acute understanding of the San Diego market and an unyielding desire to keep high profile events and the Chargers (the region's only NFL Franchise) within the County. We will attain our Goal by working transparently with key stakeholders including citizens, politicians, and regional businesses. For more information, visit <http://www.sdstadium.org>.
